SARAH NETBURN, United States Magistrate Judge:

On May 17, 18, and 19, the parties appeared before me for a trial by jury. On May 19, 2023, the jury returned a verdict. Accordingly:

- Defendants' renewed motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law under Fed. R. Civ. P. 50(b) is due no later than June 2, 2023, and Plaintiff's opposition is due June 16, 2023;
- Defendants' motion challenging Plaintiff's standing to recover a statutory penalty for Defendants' wage notice violations is due no later than June 2, 2023, and Plaintiff's opposition is due June 16, 2023;
- Plaintiff's motion for attorney's fees is due no later than June 23, 2023, and Defendants' opposition, if any, is due June 30, 2023; and
- Plaintiff's motion for default judgment against Defendant Jian Xiang Yang, if any, is due June 16, 2023.

With respect to these motions, first, Defendants are ORDERED to immediately order a copy of the trial transcript. Second, the parties should meet and confer with respect to Plaintiff's fee application. As the prevailing party, Plaintiff is entitled to a fee award. The parties, however, may stipulate to an award to avoid additional fees for the motion practice and to conserve judicial resources.

SO ORDERED.
